

AVCX Trivia puzzle #28

Puzzle by Peter Gwinn

Edited by Aimee Lucido

- 1) In August 2020, Wende Wakeman and Melba Saenz became the first female captains in the history of what law enforcement agency, formed in 1823 by Stephen F. Austin?
- 2) Despite promising in song that he was “never going back to my old school,” Steely Dan’s Donald Fagen did, in fact, return to what New York institution in 1985 to receive an honorary doctorate? The school’s other alumni include Chevy Chase, Gaby Hoffman, and Ronan Farrow.
- 3) In two educational television shows (one on NBC that ran from 1951-1965, and one on Nickelodeon that ran from 1983-1990) the titular character portrayed by Don Herbert would perform science experiments with the children who stopped by his lab. What was the name of this character?
- 4) The final film appearance of celebrated actor Raúl Juliá was a 1994 movie based on a video game series. What is the name of that video game series, created by Capcom, and featuring characters such as Ryu, Chun-Li, and Violent Ken?
- 5) Subtitled “A Star Wars Story,” what film told the story of Jyn Erso leading a team to obtain the plans to build the Death Star so that the Rebels could blow it up?
- 6) The company called Tactical Studies Rules, which was founded in 1973 by a cofounder of the International Federation of Wargaming, first published what influential tabletop game in 1974? Names of character types in the current version of this game can be found in the answers to questions 1-5.

AVCX TRIVIA

(solutions on next page)

AVCX Trivia puzzle #28 -- solutions

Puzzle by Peter Gwinn

Edited by Aimee Lucido

1) In August 2020, Wende Wakeman and Melba Saenz became the first female captains in the history of what law enforcement agency, formed in 1823 by Stephen F. Austin?

Answer: TEXAS RANGERS

2) Despite promising in song that he was “never going back to my old school,” Steely Dan’s Donald Fagen did, in fact, return to what New York institution in 1985 to receive an honorary doctorate? The school’s other alumni include Chevy Chase, Gaby Hoffman, and Ronan Farrow.

Answer: BARD COLLEGE

3) In two educational television shows (one on NBC that ran from 1951-1965, and one on Nickelodeon that ran from 1983-1990) the titular character portrayed by Don Herbert would perform science experiments with the children who stopped by his lab. What was the name of this character?

Answer: MR. WIZARD

4) The final film appearance of celebrated actor Raúl Juliá was a 1994 movie based on a video game series. What is the name of that video game series, created by Capcom, and featuring characters such as Ryu, Chun-Li, and Violent Ken?

Answer: STREET FIGHTER

5) Subtitled “A Star Wars Story,” what film told the story of Jyn Erso leading a team to obtain the plans to build the Death Star so that the Rebels could blow it up?

Answer: ROGUE ONE

6) The company called Tactical Studies Rules, which was founded in 1973 by a cofounder of the International Federation of Wargaming, first published what influential tabletop game in 1974? Names of character types in the current version of this game can be found in the answers to questions 1-5.

Answer: DUNGEONS & DRAGONS (RANGER, BARD, WIZARD, FIGHTER, ROGUE)